Re: GUIDELINES FOR 2023 SITE NOMINATIONS AND 2021-2022 OFFICER ELECTIONS

Attached are the procedures for the 41st National Indian & Native American Employment/
Public Law 102-477 Training scheduled for September 20-23, 2021 in Providence/Warwick,
Rhode Island.

GUIDELINES FOR SITE NOMINATIONS:

A city or geographic area may be nominated by one grantee OR a group of grantees that wish to work together to sponsor the 2023 NINAETC-166/477 Training.

Please carefully review the Site Considerations to assure that your city/area can meet the requirements for the 2023 NINAETC-166/477 Training. The list of Site Considerations is intended as a guide for grantees to determine if hotels/convention centers in their area can meet the various requirements of the NINAETC-166/477 Training. Of particular importance are guaranteed government rates for hotels. By keeping costs as reasonable as possible, the event remains accessible to a majority of grantees. The hotel should also be able to provide adequate and reasonable internet access for the computer lab.

It must be emphasized that the Site Selection Committee will NOT deal directly with hotels, convention centers or chamber of commerce. These dialogues will take place with the NINAETC-166/477 Executive Committee and the local grantee(s) when the 2023 site is determined.

If you are nominating your city or area and plan to use a video during the site presentation, please advise the Committee. We will make sure that equipment is available for you. If a city or area wishes to work with their local convention bureau to sponsor a reception please advise the committee. The Executive Committee will negotiate with the selected hotel at the appropriate time.

DUE DATE FOR SITE NOMINATIONS FOR 2023 NINAETC-166/477
TRAINING IS AUGUST 23, 2021.

Please note the due date for submission of the 2023 site nominations is August 23, 2021. NO SITE NOMINATIONS WILL BE ACCEPTED AFTER THE DUE DATE.
